Ball in U.S. court on Russian Eurobond payments, Russian finmin says

The economic cost of Russia's actions in Ukraine has been fully exposed as President Vladimir Putin's sanctions-ravaged government teeters on the brink of its first international debt default since the Bolshevik revolution.

Sanctions have cut Russia off from key parts of global financial markets and have frozen nearly half of the country's $640 billion gold and foreign exchange reserves. Siluanov said the block on its dollar account meant there were risks the payment would not reach the final, intended recipients.

"The payment has reached the correspondent American bank," Siluanov said. "At the moment the payment is being processed and we do not yet have reports on whether it has gone through or not. It has not been cleared yet.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy has signed a virtual assets bill into law to legalize cryptocurrencies in a country that is receiving millions in crypto donations for military and humanitarian aid in its war against Russia.

The law determines the legal status for crypto assets and the market regulators — the National Bank of Ukraine and the National Commission on Securities and Stock Market, the Ministry of Digital Transformation said in a statement on Wednesday.

Foreign and domestic cryptocurrency service providers can operate with legal accounts in Ukrainian banks under the law, the Ministry added in a tweet.

Russia is now financially almost completely free from the United States.

When Saddam Hussein announced in Iraq that he would no longer accept the US dollar for oil, two months later the war broke out in Iraq and Saddam Hussein was murdered.

Many wars were started to preserve the American dollar. When Moammer Gaddafi created an evaluated currency for Africa, Western military power went to Libya and assassinated Gaddafi.

Now Russia has finally broken the Petrol-Dollar (Fiat Money). The US is now in an existential crisis and Europe will follow.

The dollar is (almost) bankrupt and the cry for regulation of cryptocurrencies by corrupt governments show the corruption and mutiny within the organised financial system bodies like the SEC revealing how Bitcoin and Ethereum are protected.

Russia has the ruble which is fully backed by gold. India, China and Russia have long had a different monetary system apart from SWIFT.

Ripple is slowly revealing to be the new QFS it was promised and hoped by many XRP and XLM long trusted believers.

It seems the time to flip the switch is very very close.

For so long we have speculated and predicted scenarios that would involve the Event.

And Russia know seems to lead the way out of the Matrix.

Leaving behind the corrupt financial system, the media, the internet.

Exposing the NWO, EU, US, NATO, the UN, CERN, the WHO, the CIA, the MOSSAD.

All one big snake pit, full of dark connected to each other up the evil pyramid of the Elite.

About to be taken down completely.

Russia is on it,s way to implement the free world outside the matrix of the Cabal that we have been trapped in for centuries.

Internationalization of the Renmibi via bilateral swap lines

Russia's brutal war of aggression against Ukraine has triggered unprecedented sanctions being imposed by the US, Europe and other countries on various Russian entities. The most important measure so far is denying the Russian central bank—the Bank of Russia (BoR)—access to most of its international reserves held in major world currencies at Western central and commercial banks. This has prompted speculation about efforts by some other countries to move their international reserves into currencies and institutions perceived to be less vulnerable to possible US and Western sanctions. China and the Renminbi (RMB) have featured prominently in the discussion. Against the current backdrop, this article examines China's approach to the internationalization of the use of the RMB through a growing number of bilateral swap lines (BSLs) with countries around the world.

Oil payments and energy transactions are moving the flow of money into other countries as we speak. Many countries are taking a closer look at their currency reserves and realizing that the demand for other currencies will give them more personal value going forward.

Technology and trade shifts the economic power into new venues. Banks are aligning themselves with new and improved technological financial systems inside a digital asset economy.

Transitions like these creates the need for gold as a safe haven asset even more important to support emerging economies making their way into the global scene.

And now, Russia has a gold backed economy opening up inside their markets on Monday. There is more than just a physical war going on at this time. We have a trade war and a currency war that has created new alliances along the way.

I don't think people realized what just happened over the past few days, so I'm going to try to explain what I'm seeing: The Russian central bank pegged 1 gram of gold to 5000 Rubles (currently, about 50 bucks). At the same time, Putin made it so that Russian gas and oil can only be purchased in Rubles. Meaning: Putin basically just pegged Russian oil and gas to gold, using paper rubles as a proxy. Meaning: Europe will need to either buy Rubles from Putin in gold, in order to buy gas and oil, or they will have to buy directly in gold. Which means, there will soon be a lot more demand for rubles. Currently, the forex rate for rubles to dollars is about 100:1. But... with 5000 rubles now equaling 1 gram of gold, and oil being priced directly in gold - you're going to see a massive price disruption in these FOREX markets, in terms of how much gold a dollar can actually still buy. Foreign countries holding our dollar debt notes in reserve will see less of a use for them, and will want to start dumping them, in order to get something more stable, something which holds its value. Basically any currency pegged to gold now will fit the bill. Which means those countries - countries like Japan - will be dumping their dollar debt as fast as they can. They're are NOT going to go down with the ship. And they will move into more stable currencies - like the Ruble. Which will have a deflationary effect on the Ruble, making it more valuable over time. Which means Putin will be able to re-peg the Ruble to Gold at whatever rate he wants, down the line. It's 5000 rubles today. Tomorrow, it might be 500. And then 100. And then 10. This also means all those excess dollars being dumped by foreign nations are about to come home and cause even worse hyperinflation than we're seeing. Is it any wonder Biden is up on stage pleading with Europeans for regime change in Russia? He's about to have masses of angry and starving people marching through the streets here at home, demanding answers.

The Biden administration will release 1 million barrels of oil every day for the next six months—not just because it enjoys the smell, but also to flood the market with supply and tamp down spiking gas prices.

This release from the Strategic Petroleum Reserve (SPR) is the biggest ever announced by the US, and it underscores just how politically sensitive the issue of gas prices is for the Biden administration.

How we got here:

Oil prices were already on the rise before the war in Ukraine, but when Russia decided to launch its invasion, a chunk of its energy supplies were shunned by many Western governments—causing prices to go vertical.

The national average price for a gallon of gas has shot up from $2.87 last year to $4.23 currently.

What role do these reserves play?

The SPR was created in 1975 following another major shock to the US economy: the Arab oil embargo. To ensure the US never had to suffer through shortages like that again, the government amassed a huge stockpile of crude oil along the Gulf Coast for rainy days.

There have been quite a few of those recently. The US has tapped the SPR three times in the last six months to support thirsty energy markets.

So will releasing the reserves work? Well, oil prices did tank 7% yesterday. But, in general, think of it like chugging a 5-Hour Energy after pulling an all-nighter: It should help calm oil prices this year, Goldman Sachs wrote, but don't confuse it for a long-term solution to broader supply constraints.—NF

Gold-backed ruble could be a gamechanger

The Bank of Russia has resumed gold purchases this week, but more importantly, the regulator is doing so at a fixed price of 5,000 rubles ($59) per 1 gram between March 28 and June 30, raising the possibility of Russia returning to the gold standard for the first time in over a century.

If the country takes the next step, as has been proposed this week, to sell its commodities priced in rubles, these combined moves could have huge implications for the ruble, the US dollar, and the global economy.

If we tie that together with China, which I reckon has at least 20,000 tonnes of undeclared gold, then we are looking at the partnership between Russia and China effectively controlling gold. Let that sink in today.

Folks, a reset into a new monetary structure whereby metals begin to support payment structures is in process.

It looks like some funding for the private sector is coming into play. See article below. Are we witnessing a self sustaining financial structure being implemented?

Iraq's budget oil price is being proposed as of last week at $75 for the budget meeting coming up this week.

If Iraq's gold is used as a means of settlement in payment structures for oil and natural gas like Russia, we will need a rate to go along with it. 🤔

According to the finance minister, the “current crisis is man-made,” and the BRICS member states – Russia, Brazil, India, China, and South Africa – “have all the necessary tools to mitigate its consequences for their respective economies and the global economy on a broader scale.”

Siluanov says the current US dollar-based international financial system should be reformed to ensure “independence and continuity of economic processes.”

Each crypto account has projects and connections to the financial world that allows them to create value in this new global economy. It is going to level the playing field. As these real values begin to form, it will effect the new digital asset backed global economy as a whole until it filters down into the forex system. This will allow all currencies here and abroad to find their place in this new economy under real values.*

I am expecting an announcement today regarding their decision to move forward under a gold standard.

Once this is in play, the status of the dollar as the World Reserve Currency will be officially challenged on a global scale.

This is a day that will go down in history that will mark a turning point in the way Global Finances are done.

What is BRICS Contingent Reserve Arrangement (CRA)?

CRA was established in 2015 during 7th BRICS summit in July 2015.

The Treaty for the establishment of BRICS CRA was signed at Fortaleza, Brazil in July 2014.

It is a framework that aims at providing support through additional liquidity and other means to BRICS countries at a time of economic crisis.

It will be providing support to BRICS countries through liquidity and precautionary instruments in response to actual or potential short-term balance of payments pressures.

The initial total committed resources of the CRA will be 100 billion dollars with individual commitments as follows:

China ($41 billion),

India ($18 billion),

Brazil ($18 billion),

Russia ($18 billion) and

South Africa ($5 billion).

The CRA is generally seen as a competitor to the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and along with BRICS New Development Bank (NDB) is viewed as an example of increasing South-South cooperation.

Both CRA and NDB were announced as part of BRICS Fortaleza Declaration announced during 6th BRICS summit held in Fortaleza, Brazil in July 2014

What is a depository settlement?

Settlement Depository means NSD is able to perform transactions in the execution of liabilities that allow the transfer of securities upon clearing of a trade.

In other words, the ability for the Russian Ruble to be traded internationally has just expanded. This will allow other countries to hold a gold backed currency in their countries' net worth.

When other countries realize how much this enables stability on the economic front, it will cause a new understanding of how important it is for them to do the same with their own currencies.

Goldilocks 🗨️, [6/24/2022 3:01 PM]

The Russian Ruble has strengthened to pre-conflict levels. Putin has been very strategic and purposeful.

1. He's charging rubles for oil and gas sales, not dollars and euros, so other countries are using his payment system.
2. Russia changed its policies toward cryptocurrency, and can now use it in foreign trade, and as a means of paying. Citizens of Russia have opened more than 12 million wallets, storing more than 10 trillion cryptocurrencies, such as RUB.
3. He got them off the swift system, away from the central banking system, and backed the ruble with gold so it would have value, unlike the worthless US dollar. The deep state is very dependent on the dollar. As the dollar falls, so does the deep state.
4. He's working with the Brics nations to develop the new gold backed system. More countries are considering joining, getting off the old swift system.

How President Putin successfully coped with the collapse of the Russian ruble And how does that affect the US dollar?

1. The main goal of the Ukrainian war In addition to occupying Ukrainian territory to protect against NATO threats. is to organize a new world The heart of which is the destruction of the petrodollar system. which is the foundation of global control of the United States and its allies.

2. The Petro-Dollar exists because the US controls OPEC, making the global purchase of oil and energy cost the dollar. Therefore, every country has to seek dollars to buy oil and energy. Although the dollar does not have any backing securities. Also known as Kong Tek money.

3. Russia, China, India and Iran have joined forces to trade in their respective currencies. and don't use dollars Later, an agreement with OPEC was also extended. causing a large amount of dollar consumption in the world to disappear and has had an impact on the printing of the US dollar that has been printed in the past. Can't do as I like.

When the Ukrainian War Saudi Arabia and OPEC took the opportunity to turn to alliances with Russia and China, not raising oil production as the United States wanted. Forcing the EU countries to buy energy and oil from Russia in rubles.

This is the biggest reduction in the use of the dollar.. This is the destruction of the petrodollar system.

4. To sustain the petrodollar, the FED must continue to raise interest rates at ever higher rates. Hopefully there will be more dollar holdings. which works in the short term But a few days later the dollar was sold again. and affect the US stock market as well.

Because dollar holders see that the interest earned is less than the impairment. or the depreciation of the dollar."

So sell the dollar Finally had to raise interest rates again. This is a vicious circle. that is destroying the petro dollar

The situation since now is quite clear that The petrodollar system is being destroyed.

Soon it will be absolutely complete.

While the new world order is moving forward firmly

On Friday, March 11, when Russia disconnected from SWIFT and pushed its currency backed by gold, the petrodollar plunged and triggered a massive market collapse by Monday, March 14. past that

After months of teetering on the edge of default, Russia is now just hours away from a dramatic moment in the financial battle that the US and others have waged against the Kremlin over its invasion of Ukraine

A grace period on about $100 million of missed bond payments -- blocked because of wide-ranging sanctions -- ends on Sunday night. There won't be an official declaration, and Russia is already disputing the designation, but if investors don't have their money by the deadline, there will be an "event of default" on Monday morning, according to the bond documents

I could not find an article on this information, but I did receive some Intel today on DLTs from a banking contact.

The EU or European Union has moved from their pilot program and given directives through logistical training on Distributed Ledger Technology.

"Distributed ledger technology (DLT) is a digital system for recording the transaction of assets in which the transactions and their details are recorded in multiple places at the same time. Unlike traditional databases, distributed ledgers have no central data store or administration functionality."

This is another step towards cross border international trading done on a ledger technology apart from the blockchain.

We now have the European Union and the United States along with Russia and China forming Ledger technology that will allow cross border transactions to take place from the East to the West.

Ukraine and Russia make it grain. Ukraine and Russia signed an agreement yesterday that would allow Ukrainian grain exports to start flowing again through the Black Sea—a major diplomatic breakthrough that could help lower-income countries avoid a hunger crisis. Right now, about 20 million metric tons of grain have piled up at Black Sea ports due to a Russian blockade. But with that blockade lifted, 5 million could get shipped out per month, about equivalent to prewar levels. “Today, there is a beacon on the Black Sea,” UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres said.

"The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is one of two agencies that supply deposit insurance to depositors in American depository institutions, the other being the National Credit Union Administration, which regulates and insures credit unions." Wikipedia

Basel 3 requirements for the big Banks are presently being required and pushed to meet their obligations inside a stressful economy that is transitioning into a new Global Financial System.

The Basel III accord is designed to mitigate risk within the banking sector by requiring them to maintain leverage ratios and keep reserve capital (reserved assets can be items such as foreign currency or gold) on hand.

These two agencies are currently developing a proposed rule to get these requirements out and into the public as soon as possible.

Yes, the Old Financial System is going away forever. The New Gold Backed Digital Economy known as the Quantum Financial System is about to emerge.

Watch the markets closely. As one financial system falls apart a new one will be rising at the same time.

Gold will back the new global digital system.

Watch The BRICS System.

The QFS is presently in process of securing and tightening up payment protocols.

There are going to be several twists and turns here at the end of the old Financial System.

Think of it as the Global Kentucky Derby currency race to the finish line. The winner takes all.

Just so you know, my money is on Gold.
